Purpose

The UND Alumni Association and Foundation (the “Organization”) operates and raises funds for the benefit of the University of North Dakota (the “University”) under federal, state and local laws and regulations that govern charitable fundraising, gift reporting and special events.

This policy is to assist fundraising that benefits the University executed by the Organization, departments, student groups, faculty/staff, or by third parties.

To comply with North Dakota law, guarantee proper allocation of donations, avoid adjustments, and maintain consistent donor relations, no gift to the Organization shall be returned to a donor unless a clear error in the amount of payment or payee has occurred.

Gifts

By making a charitable gift to the University of North Dakota Foundation, a 501(c)(3) charitable nonprofit organization, the donor understands that charitable donations are not refundable. Refunds will only be made in the event of a mistake or an extreme circumstance if determined by the Foundation. If the purpose for which the gift is given cannot be fulfilled by the Foundation, the party who originally made the contribution may designate another use of the donation. If after a reasonable search, the donor cannot be located, the Foundation will consider the donor's original intent and determine how the fund shall be used. The Foundation Board of Trustees will have final authority to decide upon the use of the fund(s) in these circumstances. Individuals who receive refunds have the responsibility of correcting any tax filings they have made reflecting the refunded amount.

Event Registration

Unless otherwise stated in event registration or program website, the UND Alumni Association & Foundation (UNDAAF) has no obligation to return or refund fees paid to participate in an event or program.

Registration Cancellation by Participant

- Unless specifically stated on registration materials, refunds will not be available to registrants who choose to cancel their registration or choose not to attend an event.

Event Cancellation by Sponsor

- The Organization and the University reserve the right to cancel an event due to low enrollment or other circumstances that would make the event nonviable.

- If an event is cancelled by the Organization or the University, registrants may be offered a refund.
- In unlikely situations where an event is cancelled due to weather, an emergency, or other unforeseen circumstances, the Organization or the University may not be able to offer a refund.
- Hotel and travel cancellations cannot be made through the Organization or the University and you must contact the hotel or travel service separately for refunds.
